

SUPREME COURT OF YUKON

PRACTICE DIRECTION
CRIMINAL-4

Applications in Criminal Law Matters

1. All applications in criminal law matters shall be made in the Notice of Application form attached as Appendix A.
2. Where the accused is self-represented, the form may be amended to reflect a case management date to schedule the application rather than the date of the application itself.
3. An order of the Court may be drawn up by any party and attached to the Notice of Application for endorsement by the judge. Contested orders should be in the form attached as Appendix B, and consent orders in the form attached as Appendix C.
4. In applications not made pursuant to the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, and in applications not otherwise governed by statute, reasonable notice shall be given to the other party by delivering a filed copy of Notice of Application, together with copies of any materials or authorities the applicant intends to rely upon at the hearing. The Notice of Application shall set out the precise relief sought on the application and the grounds on which the applicant relies. Reasonable notice shall generally be considered to be not less than two (2) clear days notice, unless the Court orders otherwise.
5. In Charter applications challenging the constitutional validity of a Yukon enactment or an enactment of Canada, the Notice of Application shall be delivered to the required parties at least thirty (30) days before the hearing date, pursuant to the Constitutional Questions Act, R.S.Y. 2002, c. 39.
6. In applications:
 - (a) for a remedy under s. 24(1) of the Charter on account of an infringement or denial of any right or freedom guaranteed by the Charter; or
 - (b) to exclude evidence under s. 24(2) of the Charter, where the grounds for the application are known in advance of trial, the Notice of Application shall set out the nature of the application in sufficient detail to inform the other party of the case they have to meet. In particular, the Notice of Application shall include a statement of the Charter provision(s) at issue and a general indication of the evidence, grounds, and case authorities to be relied upon. When the applicant intends to tender evidence, the Notice of Application should provide an outline of what that evidence will be, including any potential witnesses. Such applications shall be on reasonable notice to the other party, which shall generally be considered to be not less than seven (7) days before the hearing date, unless the Court orders otherwise.

7. In applications to exclude evidence under s. 24(2) of the Charter, where the grounds are not known before trial, or the full basis for the application is not established until evidence emerges at trial, the trial judge will manage the application process.
8. Nothing in this Practice Direction shall be interpreted as derogating from the right of an accused to make an application at any point in the trial, but the failure to give timely notice for such an application may be taken into account by the trial judge in determining
 - (a) whether to hear the application forthwith or to adjourn the trial to hear it; and
 - (b) on what terms the judge will hear the application.
