Cite as: Commencing an Appeal When Uncertain if Leave to Appeal is Required (Civil Practice Directive, 30 June 2017)

The Court will no longer entertain applications for directions as to whether leave to appeal is required.

If a party is unsure if leave to appeal is required, the party should file a Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal and seek leave to appeal.

If leave to appeal is not required, the presiding justice may order that the Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal stand as a Notice of Appeal along with any necessary extension(s) of time.
