

SUPREME COURT OF YUKON

PRACTICE DIRECTION
GENERAL-2

Settlements and Adjournments

It is incumbent upon every party in an action or application to notify the Trial Coordinator immediately when a settlement is reached or there is the possibility of an adjournment.

All parties shall also notify the Trial Coordinator as soon as the likelihood of settlement or adjournment becomes apparent so that the Trial Coordinator can notify parties with second or third bookings or tentatively book replacement matters.
