

COURT OF APPEAL OF YUKON

Court of Appeal of Yukon
Practice Directive (Civil)
Order Made When Extension of Time Refused

Issued: 18 May 2017

Effective: 01 June 2017

Cite as: Order Made When Extension of Time Refused (Civil Practice Directive, 01 June 2017)

When an application to extend the time to file an appeal record, transcript, appeal book or appellant's factum has been refused by a justice in chambers, the order shall include a direction that the appeal is dismissed as abandoned. If there is a reason why the appeal should not be dismissed as abandoned, counsel should raise the issue at the hearing. The order should also indicate any disposition as to costs.

The Honourable Chief Justice Bauman
for the Court of Appeal of Yukon

History:

This is a new practice directive.