

COURT OF APPEAL

Court of Appeal of Yukon
Practice Directive (Civil and Criminal)
Title: Service by Electronic Mail

Issued: 16 November 2015

Effective: 1 December 2015

Cite as: Service by Electronic Mail (Civil and Criminal Practice Directive, 1 December 2015)

Rule 39 of the Court of Appeal Rules, 2005 provides that a document may be served on a party in any manner directed by a justice. Rule 2 of the Yukon Territory Court of Appeal Criminal Appeal Rules, 1993 provides that a justice may give all directions respecting the conduct of the appeal the justice considers necessary.

Given the need to ensure that service of documents by email is available to litigants, the Chief Justice directs that if a party has filed a document with an address for service in the form of an email address, that party may be served at that email address. Nothing in this practice directive relieves a party from: 1) the requirement to provide a residential or business address for service in addition to an email address and 2) a justice's discretion to require service in any manner.

The Honourable Chief Justice Bauman
