Notice to the Public and the Legal Profession – COVID-19

Hearings and Chambers Motions

Dated 06 January 2022

This notice is an update to the notice to the public and the Legal Profession of July 15, 2020. Until further notice, the Court of Appeal of Yukon will hear all hearings by video conference using the Zoom platform and all chambers applications by teleconference. If you are a participating party, or an observer, instructions on how to attend are outlined in the updated Notice to the Public Regarding Access to Court Proceedings During the COVID-19 Pandemic of January 6, 2022 and the Notice to the Public Regarding Appearing by Video, of January 6, 2022.

The Court of Appeal of Yukon is adopting these modifications instituted by the Court of Appeal for British Columbia. These procedural changes are made following the recommendations of the Chief Medical Officer of Health in Yukon.
