

SUPREME COURT OF YUKON

PRACTICE DIRECTION
CIVIL-2
FAMILY-4

Appearance Day

Appearance Day is a court practice for civil and family matters designed to permit a judge, counsel, or a party, to bring a case forward to address matters that are urgent and concern the status of a case and its progress, and can include brief case management.

There is no fee for filing an appearance day notice and no supporting affidavit is required. Its purpose is not to replace the pre-trial conference, but to provide an opportunity to address problems that prevent cases from moving forward. Trial dates will not be set without a full case management conference as set out in Rule 36 and CIVIL-7.

An Appearance Day notice in Form 52A shall be filed by counsel or a party, and served or delivered, as the case may be, at least two clear days before the Appearance Day. It shall set out the matter or issue to be addressed and the relief requested. Appearance days will be scheduled at 4 p.m. on each Chambers day. This practice direction shall be attached to the Appearance Day Notice. No confirmation that the matter is proceeding is required and the matter may be withdrawn or adjourned by contacting the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

The Appearance Day judge has the jurisdiction to award costs. Failure to appear at an Appearance Day may result in an order being made against the absent party. Out-of-town parties or counsel may appear by telephone if the clerk has been provided with a telephone number.

On an Appearance Day, the court may make any order that may be made under Rule 36 of the Rules of Court ("Case Management Conference").
