(PART 2 - Exhibits and Affidavits: This Part shall contain each document in the order that it was filed. Unless something turns on the document itself, cheques, notes, bills and other similar documents need not be reproduced so long as their effect is stated. Documents having common characteristics shall be arranged in separate groups in the order of their dates, and exhibits and affidavits to be reproduced in facsimile may, if numerous or of a special size, be grouped together.

Where evidence from the matter under appeal consists of affidavit evidence, all affidavits shall be reproduced in this Part.)

(PART 3 - Orders, Judgments and Notice of Appeal:
This Part shall contain the order under appeal with the name of the judge who gave it. The surname of a judge shall be followed by the initial "J." for a judge of the Supreme Court and the initials "T.C.J." for a judge of the Territorial Court. Where no transcript is filed, this Part shall contain each ruling of the trial judge or, where the trial was by jury, the judge's charge to the jury. The Notice of Appeal shall be included at the end of this Part.)
